The Assignment

Google <http://www.google.com/>

Great for finding guides on the process of doing legislative history or other research guides. You won't usually find a reliable legislative history on topic.

- Try other search engines if you do not find what you're looking for. They utilize different algorithms to produce search results, so you may more easily find what you're looking for. Some alternatives:
 - Yahoo! <http://search.yahoo.com/>
 - Windows Live Search <http://www.live.com/>
 - Ask <http://www.ask.com/>
- If you are specifically looking for a research guide, try searching:
 - Cornell Law Library's Legal Research Engine <http://library.lawschool.cornell.edu/WhatWeDo/ResearchGuides/Legal-Research-Engine.cfm>
