Host Checklist

- Arrange meeting with library staff to walk-through event details, if necessary
- Arrange for door alarms to be turned off & back on if necessary (contact gatesbc@uw.edu)
- Arrange for lighting schedule changes if necessary (contact Alena Wolotira at alenaw@uw.edu)
- Arrange for extra garbage and recycle containers to be placed where needed and removed after event (contact gatesbc@uw.edu)
- Make sure all necessary equipment and supplies will be on hand. The library does not have any such items to provide, such as extension cords, warming pans, etc.
- For AV support (mic/projector, etc.) contact lawhelp@uw.edu to reserve equipment and schedule support personnel time
- If your event is open to the public, complete the UW form Request for Use of University Facilities (UUF) form: <https://depts.washington.edu/sprogram/>
- If alcohol will be served, follow the instructions on the UW Alcohol and Beverage Service page: <http://www.washington.edu/marketing/events/alcohol/> (submit a UUF, complete the Alcohol Request Form, apply for a state permit, etc).
- Clear patrons from area at the time needed
- Plan post-event cleaning (get equipment, e.g vacuum cleaner from custodial staff)
- After event, inspect area and contact custodians re: any spots/stains or other special cleaning needs (contact gatesbc@uw.edu)

Law Library Staff Checklist

- 1) Notify all staff of upcoming event. Circ and Reference make sure any students and interns have information to be able to answer patrons' and guests' questions.
- 2) Notify patrons of all areas to be in use and at what time(s):
  - Signage throughout area(s): 3-4 days prior to event (notice to clear area, warn of event noise, suggest alternate study areas, thank patrons for understanding)
  - Coordinate with Host on signage during event (generally Host is responsible for event signs, but additional signs directing library patrons may be needed)
  - Main sign near or on Circdesk: 4 days prior to event
  - Students: Announce at SBA mtg., send emails or post to FB page on day of the event
  - Law Library Website: 2 weeks prior to event if library will be closed; optional if library will remain open.
