LAW LIBRARIANSHIP
A Handbook for the Electronic Age

Edited by
PATRICK E. KEHOE
LOVISA LYMAN
GARY LEE MCCANN

AALL Publications Series No. 47

Sponsored by the American Association of Law Libraries

Published by
Fred B. Rothman & Co.
Littleton, Colorado 80127
1995
Contents

FOREWORD
Carolyn P. Ahearn

PREFACE

CONTRIBUTORS

CHAPTER 1
LAW LIBRARY ADMINISTRATION
judith Meadows

1. The New Information Marketplace
Planning
2. The Changing Economy
   Global Economics
   Budgeting and Politics
   Budget
   Alternative Funding
3. Total Quality Management
4. People
   Personnel
   Customers
   Governing Committees, Trustees, and Deans
   Outside the Library: Colleagues and Associations
5. Ethical Considerations
   Copyright
   Conflicts of Interest
   Confidentiality
   Censorship
Contents

Resources 32
  Databases 32
  Space 33
  Media 34
  Hardware and Software 33
Physical Place 36
  Building Security 36
  Decentralization/Branch Law Libraries 37
  Americans with Disabilities Act 38
  Insurance 39
Conclusion 40
Selected Bibliography 40

RESPONSE
LIBRARY ADMINISTRATION IN THE PRIVATE LAW FIRM 43
Ellen M. Callinan
  Introduction 43
  Supplements to the Main Chapter Topics 44
    Planning 44
    The Changing Economy 44
    Total Quality Management 47
    People 48
    Ethical Considerations 51
    Resources 53
    Physical Place 58
  Special Considerations for Law Firm Libraries 59
    Law Firm Management 59
    Law Firm Economics 61
    Time Is of the Essence 65
    The Changing Role of Law Firm Librarians 66
Conclusion 69
  Bibliography 69

RESPONSE
CHANGING RULES GOVERNING EMPLOYER-EMPLOYEE
RELATIONSHIPS: AN INTRODUCTION FOR LAW LIBRARIANS 72
Patrick E. Kehoe
  Introduction 72
  History of Employment 74
    Employment at Will 75
    Workmen's Compensation 78
Contents

Laws and Regulation in the Twentieth Century 80
  Depression Era 80
  Unions 82
  Civil Rights 83
  Age Discrimination 84
  Consumer Protection 85
  Safety and Health 85
  Retirement 86
  Further Curtailment of Employment at Will 87
Recent Enactments 87
  Disabled Americans 88
  Civil Rights Act of 1991 90
  Family and Medical Leave 91
Employment Contracts 92
Conclusion 96

CHAPTER 2
COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT AND ACQUISITIONS 97
Lovisa Lyman & Bonnie Geldmacher

Introduction 97
Collection Development 98
  Collection Development Models 98
  Collection Development Policy 103
  Selection Process 108
  Budget 115
Collection Review and Evaluation 123
Acquisitions 127
  Obtaining Information about Materials 128
  Initiating the Purchasing Process 131
  Maintaining Records 132
  Receiving and Checking Materials 133
  Authorizing Payment 133
  Clearing Order Records 134
  Problem Solving 135
  Statistics 135
  Out-of-the-Ordinary Ordering 136
  Other Methods for Acquiring Materials 139
  Selecting an Automated Acquisitions System 140
Contents

Bibliography 142
  General Collection Development 142
  Collection Development in the Law Library 146
  Automation in Collection Development 147
  Acquisitions 149

RESPONSE
COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT IN THE LARGE LAW LIBRARY 151
Robert L. Buchwalter
  Staffing for Collection Development 151
  Collection Analysis and Evaluation 154
  Budget 157
  Electronic Resources 159
  Management Issues 160
  Preservation 162
  Bibliography 165

RESPONSE
LAW FIRM COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT AND ACQUISITIONS 167
Karl T. Gruben
  Introduction 167
  Selection 167
    Who Selects 168
    How to Select 169
  Collection Development Plan or Not 173
  New Media—Audio, Video, and CD-ROM 174
  Purchase 176
  Conclusion 177

CHAPTER 3
GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS—FEDERAL AND STATE 179
Cheryl Rae Nyberg
  Introduction 179
  Federal Government Information 181
    Computer Diskettes and CD-ROMs 182
    Electronic Bulletin Boards 187
    FTP Sites and Gophers 193
    Other Services and Sources 195
    Keeping Up 197
  Depository Library Issues and Challenges 198
  Current Legislative and Policy Developments 202
  Federal Government Information—Conclusion 208
Contents

State Issues 209
Conclusion 213
Appendix: Electronic Government Information:
A Sampler of Bulletin Boards, FTP Sites,
Gophers, and Listservers 216
Bibliography 238

RESPONSE
GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS COLLECTIONS
IN THE LAW FIRM 246
Judy Manion
Appendix: Directory of Public Access Services 252
United States Circuit Courts of Appeals 252
United States District Courts 253
United States Bankruptcy Courts 254

CHAPTER 4
FOREIGN AND INTERNATIONAL COLLECTIONS—
PART 1: FOREIGN 257
Timothy Kearley
Collecting Foreign Legal Materials 258
Basic Considerations 258
Special Considerations for Foreign Law 258
Collection Development Policy for Foreign
Legal Materials 260
The Acquisition of Foreign Legal Materials 264
Providing Access to Foreign Law Collections 268
Providing Reference Service for Foreign
Legal Materials 269
Fundamental Reference Sources for Foreign
Legal Research 269
Introductions to Foreign Legal Systems 272
Guides to Foreign Legal Material or
Legal Research 273
Dictionaries and Guides to Abbreviations 274
Writings on Specific Foreign Law Topics 275
Miscellaneous Sources 283
Continuing Education on Foreign Law and
Legal Bibliography 284
Conclusion 285
Appendix A: Introductions to Foreign Legal Systems 286
Appendix B: Guides to Foreign Legal Material or Legal Research 299
Appendix C: Bibliographies of the Law of Foreign Countries 308

FOREIGN AND INTERNATIONAL COLLECTIONS—
PART 2: INTERNATIONAL

John Strzynski
Collection Development 314
Online Databases 317
   Treaties and Agreements 317
   US/Canada Free Trade Agreement 317
   BNA International Materials 317
   Journals 317
   Law Review and Treaties 318
   BNA International Materials 318
   US/Canada FTA 318
   Specialized Databases 318
Treaties and International Agreements 318
   Organization of Treaty Materials 319
Documents of International Organizations 328
   United Nations 329
   European Community 338
   Council of Europe 344
   Professional Associations 346
Conclusion 347

CHAPTER 5
CATALOGING AND THE ONLINE CATALOG

Cecilia Kwan & Phyllis Marion
Introduction 349
Description and Entry 350
   Demise of Corporate Authorship 351
   Entries for Primary Legal Publications 351
   Other Developments in Descriptive Cataloging 360
Subject Headings 362
   Library of Congress Subject Headings 363
   LC Subject Subdivision Conference 366
Contents

Classification 368
  Machine Readable Classification Systems 368
  LC Classification for Law 370
Searching Vocabulary 373
  Controlled Language Headings 373
  Sources of Authority Work 374
  Keyword Searching 376
Implementation of Automated Catalogs 378
  Trends 378
  Choices 379
  Criteria for Selection 380
  Process of Implementation 382
Management Issues 385
  Standards and Authority Control 385
  Organizational Structure and Level of Staffing 386
  Reclassification 387
  Remote Access 387
  Advertising, Training, and User Aids 388
Extension of Online Catalogs 389
  Government Documents 390
  Microform Collections 391
  Periodical Collections 391
  Monographs and Monographic Sets 392
  Additional Databases 394
  Full Text 394

RESPONSE
CATALOGING IN THE LAW FIRM 396
Linda Wirth
  Introduction 396
  Use of Cataloging Standards 396
    Outside Users 402
    Shared Cataloging 402
    Other Factors 403
  Automation 404
    In-House Systems 404
    Ready-Made Systems 406
    CD-ROM Databases 410
  Conclusion 411
CHAPTER 6
SERIALS MANAGEMENT
IN AN AUTOMATED ENVIRONMENT 413
Suzanne Miller

Introduction 413
Acquisitions and Serials 417
   Acquisitions Tools 417
   Legal Periodical Verification Tools 418
   General Periodical Directories 418
   Vendor Catalogs 418
Cataloging and Serials 420
Bookkeeping/Accounting and Serials 421
Public Services and Serials 421
Setting Up the Serials Record 423
Nonbook Formats 430
Summary 431

RESPONSE
SERIALS IN THE LAW FIRM LIBRARY 432
Mary K. Dzurinko

Introduction 432
Serials Control 433
Manual Systems 434
Automated Systems 435
   Serials Control Systems 435
   Systems Evaluation 435
   Why Automate? 436
   Evaluation Team 437
   System Types 438
   Hardware/Operating Systems 439
   Request for Proposal 440
Selection 440
Evaluation Process 440
Serials Database 444
Bibliography 444
Contents

CHAPTER 7
COLLECTION MANAGEMENT IN THE AUTOMATED LAW LIBRARY 447
Scott B. Pagel & James L. Hoover

Introduction 447
Resource Management 449
   Control of Resources 450
   Access to Resources 455
   Arrangement of Resources 457
Facilities Management 459
   Physical Access to Resources 459
   Services 461
   Emergencies 463
Human Resources 464
   System Responsibility 465
   Qualified Personnel 467
   Library Organization 471
   Work Environment 472
Conclusion 474
Selected Bibliography 475
   Resource Management 475
   Facilities Management 476
   Personnel 476

RESPONSE
PROTECTING AND PRESERVING THE LAW LIBRARY'S ASSETS—COLLECTION AND FACILITIES MANAGEMENT 478
Regina A. Smith

Introduction 478
Facilities Management 479
Collection Management 483
Disaster Preparedness 485
Conclusion 491
Selected Bibliography 491
CHAPTER 8
REFERENCE: AN OVERVIEW
Margaret Maher Krause & Gary McCann

Reference and Electronic Publishing 493
Databases for the Law Library 497
LEXIS/NEXIS and WESTLAW 497
DIALOG 500
BRS and ORBIT Search Services 503
DATA-STAR: A European Emphasis 504
News and Business Databases 505
Legislative Databases 508
Tax Databases 514
Other Law Publishers 516
Library Catalogs 516
Electronic Bulletin Boards 517

Which Database for Which Question? 518
Question/Source 518
Subject Searching 519

Hardware and Software 521
CD-ROM Databases 523
Library-Use Education and Legal Research Education 525

Appendix: Addresses of Online Database Vendors 529
Selected Bibliography 531

RESPONSE
REFERENCE IN THE PRIVATE LAW LIBRARY
Michael Saint-Onge

Introduction 535
Training 536
Library School 536
On-the-Job Training 537
Professional Colleagues 538
Continuing Education 538
Evaluation 539

Evaluation of Reference Services 540
Tasks of Reference Librarians in Private Firms 541
Instruction 541
Interlibrary Loan 547

Conclusion 549
Selected Bibliography 549
Contents

RESPONSE
REFERENCE: COURT AND PUBLIC
LAW LIBRARY PERSPECTIVE 552
Carol Dunlap Billings

Everyman's Law Library 552
Serving the Judiciary 553
Serving the Bar 556
Serving the Public 556
Service Beyond the Library's Walls 560
Improved Service through Technology 560
Service for Prisoners and Institutional Residents 561
Communicating with Patrons 562
Depending upon Other Libraries and Agencies 565
Continuing Education for Law Librarians 567
Quality Control in the Reference Department 568
Administering Computer-Assisted Legal Research Services 569
Which One to Recommend 571
Budgetary Considerations of CALR 572
What's to Become of Reference Librarians? 572
Selected Bibliography 573

CHAPTER 9
SHARED RESOURCES 577
Catherine Pennington

Interlibrary Loans 578
Fee-Based Services 580
Copyright 582
Informal Borrowing Arrangements 584
Union Lists 585
Bibliographic Utilities 586
Cooperative Acquisitions 587
Shared Staff 589
The Whys and Why Nots of Shared Resources 590
Where Do Law Libraries Go from Here? 594
Bibliography 595
RESPONSE

SHARED RESOURCES—THE ACADEMIC LIBRARY 597

Betty W. Taylor

Interlibrary Loans 599
Information Access 601
Costs of Access 604
Conclusion 605

RESPONSE

THE ROLE OF THE LAW LIBRARY OF CONGRESS IN STIMULATING RESOURCE SHARING 606

Kathleen Price

Introduction 606
LLC as Catalyst 607
Shared Classification and Cataloging 608
Shared Collection Development 609
Shared Preservation 610
Shared Indexing, Abstracting, and Imaging of Official Gazettes 610
 Expedited Document Delivery 611
Staff Exchanges 611
Creation of International Standards and Linked Databases 611
Joint Ventures 613
Conclusion 613

RESPONSE

OUT OF THE BOOK 615

Mickie A. Voges

INDEX 621