Welcome to UW Law! The Marian Gould Gallagher Law Library is widely recognized as one of the largest public law libraries west of the Mississippi with an outstanding collection of print and electronic materials and an excellent library staff. As you decide where to pursue your legal education, consider some ways the Gallagher Law Library contributes to making UW Law students practice ready:

Perfect Places to Study
- Dedicated law student only seating (Nearly half of the user spaces are set aside for UW Law students only)
- Access to the Bogle and Gates Law Student Lounge and the L2 Student Commons
- Wireless access throughout
- Quiet with natural light
- Variety of study options: tables, carrels, desks and collaborative study rooms

Access to a Rich Collection
- Over 475,000 volume print collection
- Subscriptions to hundreds of legal databases, including Westlaw, LexisNexis, Bloomberg Law
- Access to materials from 36 other college and university libraries
- 1 of only 10 depositories of printed US Supreme Court briefs
- 1 of only 2 libraries with printed briefs from the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit

Excellent Service for Law Students
- 24/7 access to the law library
- Individual appointments with reference librarians
- Legal research instruction and training in all three years of law school
- Comprehensive research guide collection (http://lib.law.washington.edu/ref/guides.html)
- Practice exam database
- Course outline database
- Course textbooks on reserve
- Suggested reading list for prospective law students (https://lib.law.washington.edu/content/guides/readrec)

While you’re here, please feel free to visit the Gallagher Law Library. When you leave UW Law, visit us virtually at http://lib.law.washington.edu. We hope to see you in the fall!

Professor of Law
Associate Dean for Library and Technology Services