THE MARIAN GOULD GALLAGHER SOCIETY

In honor of Marian Gould Gallagher, the Society recognizes alumni, friends and organizations that have contributed $15,000 or more to the Law Library to further the cause of justice through research, scholarship and education and through the application of that knowledge to the legal problems of society.

Special thanks to Mrs. Joanne Roddis, a founding member of the Society, for sponsoring this reception in memory of her late husband Dean Emeritus Richard S.L. Roddis.

The University of Washington School of Law Library was renamed in 1981 to honor Marian Gould Gallagher. Mrs. Gallagher led the library for 37 years as the Law Librarian and Professor of Law. Mrs. G's legacy lives on in the library now managed by her former student, Associate Dean Penny Hazelton.
