The Richard S. L. Roddis Fund is dedicated to improving collections and resources of the Marian Gould Gallagher Law Library at the University of Washington School of Law. Roddis joined the law faculty in 1968, and was chosen to lead as Dean from 1970-1978.

Dean Emeritus Roddis was an active member of the faculty until his retirement in 1995. Roddis passed away in 1999.

The Richard S. L. Roddis Law Library Fund was established in 1999 by the Roddis family in partnership with many friends and colleagues to honor his commitment to excellence and address his genuine concern about the continued decline of state resources to support the Law Library.

Dean Emeritus Roddis' intellectual interests are furthered through the purchase of books and materials in the areas of insurance law and tort law. The fund is also used to purchase books about the use of plain language in contracts which was a strong interest of Dean Emeritus Roddis. This fund helps the Law Library enrich its print & electronic collections to serve the law school and the greater legal community.

For more information about the Richard S.L. Roddis Fund, the law library, or to make a gift, please visit law.washington.edu, call 206-685-2460 or stephcox@uw.edu.